CBC's Alberta Mirror Comes To the Crows Nest Pass

Beginning Monday, June 25th, a mobile team of broadcasters from CBC's provincial radio station will originate about two hours of daily programming from the thriving Alberta communities of the Crows Nest Pass.

The people of the Crows Nest Pass will have the opportunity to tell the entire province the story of their district, its past, present, and its plans for the future during Mirror's week-long visit. In all, more than 20 separate programs will be produced to tell the Crows Nest Pass story. These programs will be broadcast in:

Blairmore—Dial 860.
Coleman—Dial 1450.
Michel and Natal—Dial 1490.
Bellevue and Frank—Dial 860.

The Crows Nest Pass is the fifth Mirror district of 1962 to be visited by the broadcasters and the ninth Alberta district since the series got underway late last summer.

The Mirror team, which will arrive in the Pass this week-end, consists of Outside Broadcast Producer, David Cruikshank, who has the overall responsibility of getting each program on the air, CBC's popular announcer-interviewer, Jim Schrumm; free-lance Women's Commentator, Peggy MacFarlane; Farm Commentator, Dick Bocking; Technical Operator, Bob McKay; and Information Services Representative for Alberta Mirror, Dennis Westrum.

It would certainly be difficult to find a producer in the CBC who can match David Cruikshank's production background; which includes credits in every conceivable type of radio programming—from religious to light musical programming, and from documentaries to actually broadcasts of such events as The Royal Tour, the Calgary Stampede, and the recent Opening of the 14th Session of the Alberta Legislature. In addition to his assignment as Alberta Mirror Chief, David, as Outside Broadcast Producer, supervises all sports and special events for both radio and television at CBC Edmonton.

His radio career began at CFCP, Grande Prairie in 1946, and after working with several radio stations throughout the west, he joined the CBC as an announcer-operator at CBX Edmonton. In 1955, he went to CBC Regina as a general producer, and in 1958 he was appointed Outside Broadcast Producer in Winnipeg. David returned to his native Alberta in June of 1961 to take up his present post.

An excellent example of his production and writing talents may be heard on the CBC Radio National Network Program, "Tales & Trails of the Yukon", a fascinating ten-week series dealing with Canada's Northwest, which may be heard on CBC Radio Wednesdays at 6:45 p.m.

If only one word could be used to describe Mirror's Woman Commentator and Interviewer, Peggy MacFarlane, it would have to be the word "fascinating", or some such other synonym.

Peggy is an Edmontonian and a graduate of the University of Alberta. While at school and after graduation, "printers ink" flowed in Peggy's veins as she pursued various writing assignments with The Edmonton Bulletin. Seven years ago, while in Winnipeg, the CBC recognized her broadcasting and writing talents and offered her a position as Women's Commentator on a program entitled "Morning Comment".

Upon her return to Edmonton four years ago, Peggy began a similar program "Morning Comment" for Alberta listeners.

"CBC Edmonton television has also provided Peggy with another outlet for her talents, and every Friday evening at 7 p.m. she may be seen in the role of interviewer on the Eye-to-Eye program. With the advent of Alberta Mirror last summer, Peggy is in her element. Her wide range of interests and love for travel and meeting new faces, stand her in good stead on the Mirror trips, where she has an opportunity to interview a large number of people on an endless variety of topics.

Popular announcer-interviewer, Jim Schrumm, is the male host of Mirror, and is looking forward to making many new friends in the Crows Nest Pass and throughout Alberta on this year's Mirror series. Dubbed "genial Jim" by his Mirror associates, his pleasant voice, his likeable manner and his obvious sincerity makes him an ideal choice to meet the people on Alberta Mirror and bring their story to the rest of the province.

A native of Preston, Ont., Jim in his early days pursued a career as a telegrapher. When automation removed all future hopes for the trace, Jim turned to broadcasting and started in radio as a newsman in Saskatoon.

Within eight months he was news director of the station. He came to Edmonton as a radio newsman in 1959, and a year later realized a long-time ambition to join the CBC. Since the arrival of CBC television to Edmonton, Jim has been splitting radio and television assignments in equally capable fashion, and is regarded as one of Edmonton's leading broadcasting personalities.

The agricultural scene in and around the Crows Nest Pass will be covered on Wednesday and Thursday with the arrival of Farm Commentator Dick Bocking. Dick will shortly celebrate his first anniversary with CBC, after spending seven years as district agriculturalist in such Alberta communities as Athabasca, Vermilion, Evansburg and Stony Plain. Dick graduated from the University of Manitoba in 1954 with a B.S. in Agricultural Economics. His spare time is in part devoted to coaching the "Bocking Hockey Team"—six sons who range from one year to eight years of age.

Coleman Credit Union Board Meeting

At a well attended board meeting held last Thursday June 14th the directors of the Coleman Credit Union were addressed by Mr. Barney Martin of Calgary Central Credit Union.

There were several new membership applications approved and Mr. Martin commented favorably on Coleman's increasing business.

Plans were formulated for further service to members and now childrens accounts will also be encouraged.

Plans For New School Progressing

Final plans for the new Coleman school have been accepted by the school board and have been returned to the architects, Lurie and Neufeld of Lethbridge, this week, who will, in turn, forward the approved plans to the School Building Assistance Board for perusal and approval.

When the School Buildings Assistance Board approve the plans the Coleman Board are then free to make arrangements for financing the cost after which the matter is advertised for two weeks in the event there is any opposition by electors.

Following this procedure the Board then advertises for tenders for construction of the school.

The new school will comprise 10 class rooms plus auxiliary rooms to include a shop, home economics room and gymnasium.

The school is to be built on the south-east corner of the present rodeo and sport grounds and it is expected the building will be all ready for occupancy by September of 1963.

Homes Moved To New Development

Three newly built homes have been moved into Coleman new housing development area this week from Tornado Flats near Sentinel.

The homes, built near Sentinel last year for employees of the Gas Processing and Sulphur Plant were considerably damaged when winds of tornado force pelted the homes with gravel, rocks and other flying debris that smashed windows and did considerable damage to the exterior.

The homes, now located in the new scenic Coleman Development area are serviced with sewage facilities and will soon have gas service as well.

Over half of the lots in the new area have been sold for residences and there are still some 12 lots available in this choice piece of land.

The area is located just north of the Coleman Rodeo grounds, north of number three highway.

He was about 77 years of age. Born in Lancashire, England, he came to Canada around the turn of the century. He worked in the mines in Michel for the Crows Nest Pass Coal Company and held positions including fireboss, pitboss, afternoon superintendent and during the last few years of his employment was engaged as safety inspector for the Collieries. William Antle Passes June 9

Word was received last week that William "Bill" Antle, former chief of police in Coleman, had died in Porters Lake, Halifax County, Nova Scotia, on Saturday, June 9.

Mr. Antle, about 75 years of age, was born in Newfoundland, and came West in his teens. He worked for the Forestry for many years as a ranger in the Gap district before accepting the position of town chief of police for Coleman, on which position he remained for over 20 years.

During World War One he served overseas with the Canadian army. He was a member of the Legion and a former member of the Coleman Elks and was of the Anglican Faith. He and his wife left Coleman a year ago to reside in Porters Lake.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son Bill of Porters Lake; one daughter, Laura Martin of Calgary; six grandchildren and one sister living in Newfoundland.

Funeral services were conducted in Porters Lake, Nova Scotia.

Red Shield Canvass Successful

D. Marshall, lieutenant with the Salvation Army at Fort Macleod reports this week that a very successful Red Shield campaign was conducted throughout the Pass area last month.

A total of $638.27 was collected comprising the following amounts from the various Pass towns:—Bellevue $118.28, Blairmore $252.50, Burmis $17.50, Coleman $112.00, Cowley $30.00, Crownest $6.00, Frank $17.75, Hillcrest $57.11 and Lundrback $27.55. The Salvation Army have expressed their thanks to all who contributed so generously to the annual appeal.

Fire Chief Henry Zak of the Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade has announced this week that plans are progressing very favorably for the annual hose coupling competitions scheduled to be held Monday, July 2nd.

Teams have been invited from as far west as Creston, B.C., South to Kailispell, Mont., east to Lethbridge and Taber, and north to Calgary, Bowness, and so far entries have been received from 10 teams.

All competitions will be timed electrically.

For this annual affair the firemen have arranged to have a competition between the Blairmore, Bellevue and Coleman Cub Packs.

The firemen will also have a merry-go-round and a refreshment booth on the grounds and a demonstration of fire fighting techniques will add to the day's affair.

Following the afternoon competitions which will get underway following the noon parade of competing teams, the firemen and their wives will enjoy a banquet followed by an evening of dancing. The draw for the complete camping outfit comprising a picnic cooler, Coleman gas stove and basket of picnic dishes will be made at the dance.

Sentinel during the past week.

The installation of the "horns" was supervised by Gordon Greenwood of Edmonton, and the equipment was placed on top of the tower by means of gin poles and winches. Early attempts to place the horns on the tower by means of using a large helicopter were abandoned due to heavy winds and unfavorable weather conditions.

Several attempts were made by the 'copter but were given up. The new horns will provide additional and extra facilities for telephone and television communications. McGregor Telephone and Power Company of Edmonton, who are specialists in this field of work took one week to do the installations.

The micro wave tower, reaching 250 feet into the clouds on top of the Crows Nest ridge, was installed in 1957 and is one of the highest links in this western part of the Cross Canada Micro Wave system.

In order for the McGregor men to be able to get to the top of the Crows Nest ridge a catpillar tractor had to plow out remaining winter snows from the narrow road which is located on the north side of the mountain.

Visitors entering Seattle from the south will be encouraged to visit Alberta and will have ample expert information made available to them by the Alberta Government Travel Bureau trailer (above)—which has been located at a strategic point, 16640 Pacific Highway South. The trailer, which has been located at Deep Creek, Idaho, during the previous travel seasons, is equipped as a well designed travel information booth, and is staffed by two Albertans, James Barr and Craig Wallace, who have served in similar counselling capacity in previous years. Officials of the Alberta Travel Bureau are anticipating a major influx of tourists who have been attracted to the Seattle World's Fair and who will be completing a circle tour during their holiday jaunt. Many from the east will travel west on the Trans-

Canada Highway and return via the States. Others will reverse the route. Many more are expected from the west and south western States and these people will be encouraged to travel north to Canada into Alberta by the new Trans-Canada mountain route and return to the States on this side of the Rockies. The Alberta Travel Bureau trailer, located adjacent to the Seattle-Tacoma airport on a filling station property is identified by large signs at the site, and on the route leading to it. The mobile bureau will be open through June to September. Indication of the extent of foreign travel to Alberta may be judged by enquiries received to date, 52,010 compared with 44,677 for the same period last year.

Domestic Animals On Highways

A recently passed amendment to the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act which will take effect July 1st, 1962, provides for the impoundment of any domestic animal found wandering on a highway when not under the direct and continuous control and charge of a person competent to control that animal.

The amendment to Section 89 of that Act requires that the animal under control not obstruct or cause any damage to the highway or create any hazard to traffic on the highway.

The Act now provides that an employee of the Highways Department or a peace officer may take into custody an animal that is on the highway contrary to the provisions of the Act and may cause it to be taken to, fed and kept in a suitable place, and the employee of the Highways Department or the peace officer concerned has a lien upon the animal for the expenses of the removal, care, feeding and keeping of the animal and that recovery of the expenses involved is to be made under the Livery Stable Keepers Act.

With the passing of this amendment to the Act the owner of an animal that is on a highway contrary to the provisions of this Section 89 of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $50.00, this in addition to any expenses which may be incurred through the seizure of the animal.

The amendment to Section 89 of this Act sets out an exemption in that nothing in this new enactment imposes any civil liability for damages on the owner of an animal that is on a highway contrary to Section 89 and provides that any question of liability for damages arising in a civil action shall be determined as if this legislation had not been enacted.

A further exemption is set out in that the provisions of this amended Section 89 of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act do not apply to a highway adjacent to land held under a grazing lease or permit or land established and operated as a community grazing reserve pursuant to the Public Lands Act.

During past years with the absence of legislation controlling the wanderings of domestic animals on highways motorists travelling thru the Crows Nest Pass have on many occasions been confronted with the problem of domestic animals on the highway with the resultant toll in accidents, personal injury and property damage. Now, with this permitting legislation, it is to be anticipated that enforcement of the new legislation will reduce the number of domestic animals wandering at large on highways within the Crows Nest Pass.

Jehovah's Witnesses Hold Meetings at Fort Macleod

Local and district residents of Coleman were in Fort Macleod over the past week-end to attend the three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, held at the Fort Macleod high school.

Sponsored by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, the week-end meetings consisted of Bible instruction and demonstrations for the purpose of increasing praise to Jehovah God.

Such refresher courses are held at regular intervals during the year in over 185 different lands where Jehovah's Witnesses have congregations.

High-lighting Saturday's sessions was a special baptismal and ordination service for six new ministers who will serve in the Pincher Creek and Fort Macleod district.

Climaxing the week-end's activity Mr. C. Statton, guest speaker of the Society's branch office in Toronto, discussed the subject "Who Will Rule the World?"

Speaking to a capacity audience of 409 Sunday afternoon, Mr. Statton pointed out that it will be neither the East nor the West that will rule the world, but rather a power much higher than man will be the world ruler.

Mr. Statton declared that this world rule would be accomplished through God's Kingdom, which men have been praying for for centuries.

Mr. Statton also went on to outline the qualifications that such a world ruler must have, namely— "Loyalty to God like that of King David, a love of people like Moses had, and he must be appointed as king by God, as a permanent world ruler. It is only Christ Jesus who has these qualifications as world ruler."

Sunday chicken easy on budget

The old status symbol of "Chicken Every Sunday" is obsolete.

Every knowing food shopper includes a chicken in her order every week because it keeps her budget in good order.

Nowadays many requests are received for different ways of cooking chicken.

A dependable recipe for Chicken a la Bordelaise is always right. It can be made for small parties and is served from a chafing dish. When made for the family it is served on tea biscuits.

The adaptation for casserole cookery and advance preparation for guests meals is as follows:

Chicken Bordelaise Casserole (serves 5)

This may be prepared in advance
1 three lb. frying chicken.
1 cup hot water.
half lb. mushrooms sliced
2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons flour
half cup table cream half cup chicken stock
three-quarter teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Shake of accent
Generous shake garlic salt half cup crushed cornflakes (1 cup before rolling) quarter cup Parmesan cheese.
Add the hot water to the chicken and simmer covered until meat will slip from bones (1½ hours at simmering or 35 minutes at 10 lbs. pressure in pressure cooker).

Turn all out onto large platter or tray to cool enough to handle and slip meat from bones and skin. Keep pieces of chicken as large as possible. (If you have invited two guests keep the two breasts as whole as possible and put them at the top of the casserole—see below). Scrub and slice the mushrooms each in four and saute in margarine until limp but not at all brown.

Sprinkle, flour over and blend in. Add the cream and stock and stir until thick. Add salt, Worcestershire sauce, accent and garlic salt. Turn this into an average-sized shallow casserole. 8½x8½x2".

Spread chicken pieces over, putting the two whole breasts at the top so the server can lift them out easily for the first two plates served. Combine the cornflake crumbs and cheese and sprinkle over top. Note: If this is to be prepared in advance cool it to room temperature, cover and keep in refrigerator until baking time. Bake uncovered at 350 deg. Fahr. 30 to 40 minutes or until top is golden and edges are bubbly.

Buttercakes as they used to be made by tall-hatted chefs in the windows of restaurants have all the ingredients that common English Tea Cakes call for.

Buttercakes

1½ cups scalded milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons each shortening and sugar
2 pkgs. granular yeast
half cup lukewarm water
4½ cups flour
To the scalded milk in a large bowl add the salt, shortening and sugar.

Soak the yeast in the water 10 minutes, then stir it and add and stir. Add flour and beat for 100 strokes. Cut down dough from sides of bowl, level top, cover, and stand bowl in pan of warm water at 75 deg. Fahr. Let rise until doubled.

Now drop from large spoon onto a greased griddle that is quite hot but not smoking. Bake on griddle until bottom is golden brown then carefully turn and brown other side.

The griddle baking requires about 15 minutes. Buttercake lovers break them apart and spread generously with butter.

Always do right. This will gratify some people, and will astonish the rest.

'SLOW DOWN' not 'CRAWL'

The summer safe-driving campaign of the Canadian Highway Safety Council, called Slow Down and Live, is not designed to produce road crawlers according to CHSC's executive director, W. Arch Bryce.

"What we want to do," said Mr. Bryce, "is stress the common sense and logic of driving at speeds safe under existing conditions.

"If the conditions—weather, traffic, vehicle and driver conditions—are safe, let the motorist keep up to the speed limit. That's no time for him to crawl along the road and delay others who want to move faster. He's a menace. But if there is heavy rain, fog or dense traffic, slower speeds must be maintained. If the car or the driver is in unsafe condition, neither should be on the road."

Slow Down and Live is an international vacation-time campaign originating with the Association of State and Provincial Safety Co-ordinators. CHSC is the Canadian headquarters. Provincial co-ordinators in each province have extensive plans for this drive to keep the highways safe during the high-traffic summer months, June, July and August.

Proper foot care bans later ailments

(by Dr. Harold T. Hyman)

Not many of us reach "years of discretion" without suffering the aches and pains of back troubles caused by faulty body mechanics and even faultier shoeing.

Since, for the most part, our troubles are due to errors dating back to infancy and childhood, we have an obligation to protect the rising generation from repeating too many of our mistakes.

Foot Misery

Here are some suggestions that may keep your youngsters from the later development of foot miseries and back strains:

Don't urge the infant to stand or walk until he indicates that he's ready for weight-bearing. Never mind what the book says about when he ought to make the effort. Instinct is a better guide.

Don't start with a mechanical walker. Straddling places weight-bearing on the inner part of the foot when it should be on the outer.

Don't encourage bare-foot walking. Especially if you have a house pet. Sooner or later your child is going to have to wear shoes. And there is no sense exposing him to contaminated floors and floor coverings in the meantime.

Buy stockings one-half inch longer than the length of the foot. Make your measurement with the youngster standing.

Observe these specifications for shoes—quarter inch wider and half to three-quarter inch longer than the measurements of the foot in the standing position broad toe straight inner margin, adjustable laces, widest at ball of foot, flexible but firm sole that is not slippery.

Worn Shoes

Make frequent examinations of the shoes. If they are worn unevenly, especially along outer heels, have a lift added and correct the walking stance.

Teach the youngster to point his toes in the direction for which he is headed to keep his feet parallel and to shift weight along the outer border. Don't let him walk like a penguin with his toes pointed east and west while he's travelling to north or south.

Bathe his feet morning and night with soap and water. Dry carefully particularly between the toes to prevent ringworm. Keep the skin smooth by anointing it with an unmedicated preparation such as cream of albolene.

As soon as the toenails extend beyond the fleshy portion of the toes, cut them straight across. Don't round the corners. And be sure to avoid trimming them too severely.

As soon as the old pair of shoes shows signs of unusual wear or the growing foot appears to be getting crowded, provide a new pair. The old cry of "baby needs a pair of shoes" didn't just come out of thin air.

• Formerly a featured singer with Lawrence Welk (right) and his band, and seasoned by five years in the entertainment business in the United States, Maurice Pearson, (left), returns to Canadian radio. He can be heard each week in two radio shows on CBC trans-Canada network—with the Bud Henderson combo in the "Maurice Pearson Show" each Thursday and with Lorraine McAllister and the Dave Pepper Orchestra in "On a Sunday Afternoon" heard alternate Sundays.

Coleman Elks Lodge held a successful bingo night with prizes being won by the following: 25 gallons gas, Mrs. Cozzi, occasional chair, Roy Huff of Trochu; $12.00 split, Freda Taje and Anne Borusuk; $10.00 split by Joe Forish and Mrs. J.  Alberta

Synopsis of By-Law No. 316 of the Town of Coleman, Alberta, being a By-Law authorizing the Municipal Council to take the necessary steps for the installation of a Gas System and incur an indebtedness to cover the costs of such installation.

The recitals to the By-Law state:

1. That according to plans, specifications and estimates prepared by T. J. Robertson, B.Sc., Professional Engineer, the total cost is estimated not to exceed $233,000.00.
2. That it will be necessary to borrow the sum of $233,000.00 by issuing debentures to be repaid over a period of twenty-five years, with interest not to exceed 7% per annum.
3. That debenture debt created for the purchase, construction, maintenance or improvement of a public utility may be made a lien and first charges on the gross revenues of such public utility only and NOT ON THE TAXES, rates or other revenues of the Town.
4. That a plebiscite held on May 10, 1962, indicated by a vote of 169 for, and 98 against, that the Council establish a Town-owned and operated Gas transmission and distribution system.

The By-Law itself authorizes and empowers:

The Municipal Council to borrow the sum of $233,000.00 on the credit of the revenues of the Gas system by way of debentures at a rate not to exceed 7% per year, repayable in twenty-five years by instalments of interest for the first three years, and principal and interest for twenty-two years.

It authorizes the Council to enter into such contracts as may be necessary for the construction and operation of the proposed gas system; and authorizes the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer, under the corporate seal of the Town, to sign the necessary debentures.

It provides for the raising by a gas rate sufficient to meet the obligations for the operation and payment of debentures and interest.

The rates shall be:

- (a) Domestic: Small Commercial: Minimum Monthly Charges to include the first 2MCF—$3.50 All additional MCF—46c/MCF
- (b) Commercial: (Available to customers using more than 800MCF per year) Minimum monthly service charge—$10.00 Charge for gas consumed 54c/MCF

It provides for keeping separate accounts in special funds for the operations of the gas system, and regulations for the use of such funds.

It provides that the provisions of the Gas Protection Act shall be complied with, and limits of liability insurance have been set.

It provides that gas may be supplied to the Town and others.

Notice

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true synopsis of a proposed By-Law No. 316 of the Town of Coleman, which has been introduced and which will be finally passed within four weeks from the assent of the proprietary electors thereto.

The votes of the said electors shall be taken on the FOURTH DAY OF JULY, A.D. 1962, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 7 o'clock in the afternoon, at the COUNCIL CHAMBERS, TOWN OF COLEMAN, Alberta.

Dated at Coleman, Alberta, this 7th day of June, A.D. 1962.

 Returning Officer.

He must guarantee the producer a good broadcast sound quality without the advantages of a real radio studio. Mobile shows are becoming a real specialty for Bob who is another Mirror veteran.

Rounding out the CBC team is Information Services representative for Alberta Mirror, Dennis Westrum. Dennis serves as unit manager for the crew, handling the many details of such a project and has arranged all the advance information on the series. He is anxious to answer any questions you may have about broadcasting, be it Alberta Mirror or otherwise.

Producer David Cruikshank is hopeful that the friendliness and co-operation of the people of the Pass will help make the 5th Alberta Mirror of 1962 a most memorable visit. It is hoped that the citizens of the Pass will visit with the crew at the Tea, hosted by the Ladies of the Royal Purple on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Blairmore Elks Hall, thus giving Peggy MacFarlane and Jim Schrumm an
